

Kartbahn EASTER SEALS 250

November 2, 2017

ABOUT EASTER SEALS KARTBAHN 250

The Easter Seals Nova Scotia Kartbahn 250 is a go-kart relay race. We'd like you to get together a group of 6 to 10 friends, family members, or co-workers and chase the checkered flag to victory! There will be prizes for teams with the fastest time and most money raised!

Funds raised support our programs and services for Nova Scotians with disabilities.

HOW THE KARTBAHN 250 WORKS

Kartbahn 250 is a three-hour, 250 lap race. The race will be held on the evening of November 2nd from 6 - 10pm (doors open for registration at 5pm). During or after the race, enjoy 'Pit Row' where food and refreshments will be provided and other treats will be waiting for you. Prizes will be presented to the top racing and top fundraising team.

Register by visiting easterseals.ns.ca and follow the link.

Once your team has raised your minimum fund raising goal of $2,000; e-mail or call Tanya Poulton at tanya.poulton@easterseals.ns.ca 902-453-6000 ext 220 to book your race time!

ABOUT EASTER SEALS NOVA SCOTIA

Easter Seals Nova Scotia advocates for a barrier-free Nova Scotia and provides top-quality services promoting mobility, inclusion and independence for Nova Scotians with disabilities. We have served Nova Scotians with disabilities for more than 80 years helping children, youth, and adults from Yarmouth to Cape Breton. Twenty per cent of Nova Scotians live with a disability, the highest provincial percentage in the country. Our programs are designed to enable Nova Scotians with disabilities to participate in camp, sport and active living programs, to have access to affordable wheelchairs and other mobility equipment, and to acquire job skills training. Nova Scotians with disabilities seek equality and inclusion, and access to independence and opportunities that come with full citizenship. Our ongoing work involves meeting the needs and aspirations of our clients and trainees. Learn more at easterseals.ns.ca.
